

Digital subtraction X-rays showing the supportive framework of a covered stent being deployed in the descending thoracic aorta to repair a type b thoracic aortic dissection. Note in the lower panel the contrast filled balloon within the stent ensuring it is fully expanded.

