

Meckel's scan.

A 6 month old girl presented with fresh blood in her motions.

This technetium scan was performed which demonstrated activity in the stomach and bladder, as well as in the right iliac fossa. A lateral view (below) confirmed that this was in a Meckel's diverticulum and not the right kidney

