

Plain abdominal x-ray of a 25 year old woman with ulcerative colitis. There are faeces in the right colon, but the descending colon is empty and smooth walled, although there is slight irregularity in the wall secondary to the ulceration. Note the intrauterine contraceptive device.

